INSURANCE RESPONSIBILITY

Once the rented equipment leaves our yard, you are completely responsible for it until you return it to our yard, and have a return contract copy. Our insurance does not cover our equipment while it is in your possession. An insurance certificate may be required to rent certain pieces of equipment. Contact your agent for coverage. The back of our rental contract will explain this in more detail.

AVAILABILITY

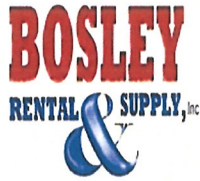

Not all equipment is available at all locations - check with the location you plan to visit for availability.

CLEANING CHARGES

We make every effort to see that all rental equipment is clean when you pick it up. A cleaning charge will be applied if the equipment is returned dirty.

Many of our larger items are equipped with hour meters and have rates based on eight (8) hours use during a twenty-four (24) hour period. Additional charges will be applied if the hour meter exceeds eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week or one hundred sixty (160) hours per month. Double or triple shift equipment operation will be charged accordingly.

FUEL

All equipment will have a full tank of the applicable fuel (gasoline, diesel, kerosene or propane) when you pick it up, or it is delivered to you. You will be charged for fuel based on (1) one day's usage at the time of rental. Should you keep the equipment longer, you are responsible for fueling the equipment. Equipment needs to be returned full of fuel or a fee will be charged.
